

Instruction of the Dean of Bachelor Studies from 7th of September 2021 on the classes in the individual teaching mode.

In reference to §12.4 of Rules and Regulations effective from 1st of October 2021, the student may apply for classes in the individual teaching mode for subjects that were not launched in specific semester.

Realization of classes in the individual teaching mode can be applied by submitting the request (written or in electronic system) to the Dean of Bachelor Studies.

Student is obliged to submit an application for realization of a subject that was not launched in the individual teaching mode without delay, no later than 14 days from the day on which, due to the publication of the timetable of classes or other objective and documented circumstances, it turns out that the realization of a given subject will not be possible in a regular mode.

To the application the acceptance of the teacher for conducting the classes in the individual teaching mode in written form or by e-mail from the address in SGH domain should be attached.

When considering an application for individual teaching mode, the Dean is guided by an assessment of the student's individual situation and economic rationality, taking into account in particular whether the student will be able to complete the course work in the further course of his or her studies.

In the case of obtaining the Dean's permission for realization of classes in the individual teaching mode, it is the student's responsibility to ask the lecturer to determine the mode of conducting the classes and the dates, methods, and criteria for evaluation.

The instruction shall come into force on 1st of October 2021 and shall remain in force until further notice.
