

Instruction of the Dean of Bachelor Studies on the defences of the diploma thesis of 5th of April 2022

In reference to § 39.12 of Rules and Regulations in force from 1st of October 2021 I determine the rules for the organization of defences.

1. From 1st of June 2022 the defences will be held on site on dates and in rooms designated by the Dean's Office.
2. Final deadline for submitting the bachelor thesis is the last day of second term of exam session in the semester, in which the bachelor seminar is realized (§38.6 of Rules and Regulations).
3. A prerequisite for the student's participation in defences in July is submitting the bachelor thesis until 31st of May. If the deadline falls on a weekend of public holiday the thesis should be submitted no later than on the next working day after the deadline.
4. The date of submitting the thesis shall be the date on which the supervisor will upload the positive review in APD system.

Instruction is in force from 1st of June 2022 and is valid until further notice. The instruction from 26th of July 2021 therefore lapses, except for those who have completed the bachelor seminar and submitted the bachelor thesis no later than the winter semester 2021/22. In their case, the previous instruction is in force until the end of July 2022.
