

OBLIGATORY E-LEARNING TRAININGS

A first semester student of first-degree and second-degree* studies is obliged to do the following e-learning workshops:

- Occupational Health Safety Training (BHP);
- Library Training;
- Intellectual Property Protection – Rudiment.

You should log on to www.e-sgh.pl using your personal SGH login and password (the same as login and password to your account in Virtual Dean Office or your SGH e-mail box).

The e-workshops will be activated on university website www.e-sgh.pl on 1st October 2020. By November 18, 2020, you should make yourself acquainted with all the training materials and pass the obligatory tests, following the instructions provided.

* The students who have graduated from the first-degree studies at the Warsaw School of Economics and accomplished all three above mentioned trainings - do not need to take the trainings again.

If you need more information, do not hesitate to contact with:
Centre for Open Education
room 226 in the Main building SGH
e-mail: e-sgh@sgh.waw.pl

Based on:

Curricula for first and second cycle programmes in English at SGH (for students admitted in the academic year 2019/2020).